

Ryan Shay Memorial Scholarship

“Dark, unreasonable fear can twist and grind an individual... It is necessary to dig deep within oneself to discover that hidden grain of steel called will.” - Ryan Shay, 1997

In 2008, members of the Shay family established the Shay Memorial Foundation (SMF) in memory of their 28-year-old son, Ryan Shay, who passed away from sudden heart failure on November 3, 2007, while competing in the 2007 United States Olympic Marathon Trials in New York City. Ryan grew up in Central Lake and graduated as a valedictorian from Central Lake High School in 1997. He earned a degree in economics from the University of Notre Dame and was a world class distance runner. This fund provides memorial scholarships to qualifying Central Lake High School senior students to honor his memory.

Application Essay

The following excerpt is from Ryan's 1997 high school graduation commencement speech:

Although not everyone is going to win in life, everyone can set personal goals. Striving to reach the goal is an achievement in itself. Satisfaction comes from knowing you've given it your best shot. When you've done everything you know how to do and then don't master it, you can still feel successful. Then you will never have to look back and say "if only I had tried!" Remember, "a loser is one who does not accomplish anything without even trying". - Ryan Shay, 1997

Discover Ryan Shay by researching the internet and You Tube videos and then describe (in two typewritten pages) what specific character attributes you may share in common with Ryan and how those attributes and this scholarship would help you achieve your goals.

Along with this application, please submit your high school transcript as well as two letters of recommendation; one from a non-family/school faculty member and one from a teacher/coach/athletic director/administrator.
